Once you have decided on a Disney Vacation Club membership, you need to start looking for the best deals on points. Disney Vacation Club points are the currency that you use to book vacations at Disney resorts. The more points you have, the more vacations you can book.

There are a few different ways to find deals on Disney Vacation Club points. You can buy points directly from Disney, or you can buy them from a third-party reseller. You can also rent points from other Disney Vacation Club members.

If you are looking for the best deals on Disney Vacation Club points, you should consider buying them from a third-party reseller. Third-party resellers typically sell points for less than Disney does.

When looking for a third-party reseller, it is important to do your research. Make sure that the reseller is reputable and has a good track record. You should also compare prices from different resellers to make sure that you are getting the best deal.

Chapter 3: Negotiating the Best Possible Price on Your Disney Vacation Club Membership

- Be prepared to walk away from the negotiation if you are not happy with the price.
- Be willing to negotiate on the price, the number of points, and the type of membership.
- Get everything in writing before you sign anything.
