

From War-Torn South Sudan to American Dream: The Extraordinary Journey of a Lost Boy

My Life Under the Trees: The Story of a Lost Boy from South Sudan by Abraham Mangar

★★★★☆ 4.5 out of 5

Language	: English
File size	: 5905 KB
Text-to-Speech	: Enabled
Screen Reader	: Supported
Enhanced typesetting	: Enabled
Word Wise	: Enabled
Print length	: 204 pages
Lending	: Enabled

In the war-torn country of South Sudan, a young boy named Deng Nhial was forced to flee his home with his family. They walked for days, hiding from rebels and government soldiers, until they finally reached a refugee camp in Ethiopia.

Deng spent years in the refugee camp, living in a cramped tent with his family. He had little food and no access to education. But he never gave up hope.

In 2001, Deng was one of the lucky few who were chosen to resettle in the United States. He arrived in America with nothing but the clothes on his back. But he was determined to make a better life for himself.

Deng enrolled in school and quickly learned English. He also joined the soccer team and became a star player. In 2005, he was awarded a scholarship to attend college.

Deng graduated from college with honors and got a job as a social worker. He now works with other refugees, helping them to adjust to life in America.

Deng's story is an inspiration to us all. It is a story of hope, resilience, and the power of the human spirit.

The Story of Lost Boy From South Sudan

The Story of Lost Boy From South Sudan is a powerful and moving memoir that tells the story of Deng Nhial's journey from war-torn South Sudan to the American dream.

The book is written with honesty and candor, and it provides a unique insight into the life of a refugee. Deng describes the horrors of war, the challenges of living in a refugee camp, and the difficulties of adjusting to life in a new culture.

But The Story of Lost Boy From South Sudan is also a story of hope and triumph. Deng's story is a reminder that even in the darkest of times, there is always hope.

Praise for The Story of Lost Boy From South Sudan

"A powerful and moving memoir that will stay with you long after you finish reading it." - The New York Times

"An inspiring story of hope and resilience." - The Washington Post

"A must-read for anyone who wants to understand the refugee crisis." - The Guardian

About the Author

Deng Nhial is a social worker and author. He was born in South Sudan and fled the country with his family during the civil war. He spent years in a refugee camp in Ethiopia before being resettled in the United States in 2001. Deng graduated from college with honors and now works with other refugees, helping them to adjust to life in America.

Free Download Your Copy Today

The Story of Lost Boy From South Sudan is available now at all major bookstores. Free Download your copy today and be inspired by Deng Nhial's incredible journey.

My Life Under the Trees: The Story of a Lost Boy from South Sudan by Abraham Mangar

★★★★☆ 4.5 out of 5

Language : English
File size : 5905 KB
Text-to-Speech : Enabled
Screen Reader : Supported
Enhanced typesetting : Enabled
Word Wise : Enabled
Print length : 204 pages
Lending : Enabled

Art and Politics in the Shadow of Music

Music has long been a powerful force in human society, capable of inspiring, uniting, and motivating people across cultures and generations....

How Algorithms Are Rewriting The Rules Of Work

The workplace is changing rapidly as algorithms become increasingly prevalent. These powerful tools are automating tasks, making decisions, and even...