The Boy With Two Lives is the unforgettable memoir of Abbas Kazerooni, a man who lived two vastly different lives. Born in Iran, Abbas was forced to flee his home country after the Islamic Revolution.

Abbas's journey took him from Iran to Turkey, Greece, Italy, and finally the United States. Along the way, he faced countless challenges, including poverty, hunger, and discrimination. But through it all, Abbas never lost sight of his dream of a better life.

In the United States, Abbas eventually found success as a businessman. But beneath his success, he carried the weight of his past. This memoir is a testament to his resilience and his ability to overcome adversity.
