

Tragedy, Heroism, Survival: The Epic True Story of America's Deadliest Natural Disaster

On September 8, 1900, a Category 4 hurricane slammed into the island city of Galveston, Texas, killing as many as 8,000 people and leaving the city in ruins. The hurricane was the deadliest natural disaster in American history.

In Tragedy, Heroism, Survival, historian Eric Jay Dolin tells the epic true story of the Galveston hurricane. Dolin draws on eyewitness accounts, newspaper reports, and other historical documents to recreate the events of that fateful day.
