Al Ewing's Masterful Storytelling

At the helm of this riveting narrative stands Al Ewing, a visionary storyteller whose cerebral approach and evocative prose have redefined the Hulk mythos. With The Green Door, Ewing delves deeper into the Hulk's fractured mind, exploring the darkness that lurks within and the fragile humanity that remains.

The Hulk's Nightmarish Descent

As the sun sets on Immortal Hulk Vol. 1, Bruce Banner grapples with the consequences of his actions. Tormented by guilt and a shattered identity, he finds himself spiraling into a nightmarish realm where the boundaries between reality and delusion blur. The Green Door becomes a haunting symbol of this descent, a gateway to a world of psychedelic terrors and buried secrets.

Introducing: The Green Door

The Green Door is more than just a physical threshold; it is a metaphor for the Hulk's inner turmoil. As Banner navigates its treacherous corridors, he encounters grotesque creatures, distorted reflections of his past, and a terrifying manifestation of his own repressed trauma. The Green Door is a psychological labyrinth where nothing is as it seems and sanity itself is threatened.

A Symphony of Nightmarish Imagery

Immortal Hulk Vol. 2 is a visual masterpiece, brought to life by the eerie and unsettling art of Joe Bennett and Andrea Sorrentino. Their shadowy illustrations and grotesque character designs create an atmosphere of constant dread, immersing readers in the Hulk's twisted reality. Bennett and Sorrentino's collaboration transforms The Green Door into a hauntingly beautiful nightmare, where every panel is a mesmerizing work of art.

Unveiling the Hulk's True Nature

Through its psychedelic journey, The Green Door peels back the layers of the Hulk's complex character. Ewing reveals the Hulk's vulnerabilities, his primal instincts, and the human soul that yearns for redemption beneath the rage. The result is a profound exploration of identity, morality, and the darkness that can reside within each of us.

A Must-Read for Horror and Comic Aficionados

Immortal Hulk Vol. 2: The Green Door is an essential read for fans of psychological horror and superhero comics alike. Its gripping narrative, stunning artwork, and thought-provoking themes elevate it beyond the realm of traditional superhero fare. It is a genre-bending masterpiece that will haunt your dreams and linger in your mind long after you reach the final page.
